Smoker, 70-year-old man presents with productive cough and bilateral rales. Frontal chest x ray and axial and reformatted chest CT images are presented.
1. Which of the following findings are present on the chest x-ray?

A. Linear scarring
B. Hilar retraction
C. Peripheral patchy opacities
D. Elevation of the right hemidiaphragm
E. Right lower pulmonary opacity.

2. Which of the following findings are visible on the chest CT images?

A. Peripheral honeycombing
B. Reticular opacities
C. Pneumothorax
D. Pleural effusion
E. Traction bronchiectasis

Answers on page 39

Julio Manuel Díaz Riverol
MD, Radiologist.
Belmopan Medical Imaging Center.
Email: diazriverol@hotmail.com